

COURSE DURATION:

HALF DAY COURSE, INCLUDING HEIGHT SAFETY AWARENESS AND MULTIPLE- CHOICE TEST PAPER

CANDIDATES:

MAXIMUM 8 DELEGATES PER COURSE

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This course is for operatives & supervisors who require the knowledge & practical skills to work safely with steps and ladders, including those involved in working at height who have not received prior formal instruction, and also those who require refresher training

COURSE AGENDA:

- Introductions, Aims and Objectives
- Legislation and regulations affecting work at height
- Product standards and classifications of ladders
- Product standards and classifications of stepladders
- Assessing risks and hazards affecting the use of ladders and stepladders
- Inspection, planning and organising
- Storage, handling and maintenance
- Theory test and practical assessments
- Course review
- Questions

KNOWLEDGE At the end of the course candidates will have adequate knowledge of:

- Problems associated with working at heights
- Steps and ladders legislation
- Employers responsibility
- Employees responsibility
- Risk assessments and method statements
- Safe systems of working at height
- Selection of steps and ladders
- Pre-use inspections of steps and ladders
- Maintenance and storage of steps and ladders

COURSE AIM:

To give the knowledge needed for the correct and safe use of Steps and Ladders when working at height. Delegates will learn to select appropriate work at height equipment for a task, inspect ladders and stepladders for damage, correctly position and locate, and safely use ladders and stepladders.

